

What is a common sign that an online shopping website might be a scam?

The site has many colorful ads
Prices are unusually low
The website loads slowly
It accepts only PayPal

What should you never share with a stranger online?

Your favorite food
A funny meme
Your ID or personal documents
Your favorite color

If someone asks you to go to an ATM to “receive” money, what should you do?

Follow their instructions
Ask your parents first
Ignore it – it’s a scam
Call your bank to confirm

What is phishing?

A way to earn money online
A type of computer game
A scam where fake messages trick you into giving personal info
A new social media trend

Which of these is the safest behavior online?

Sharing personal info only with friends
Using strong passwords and avoiding suspicious links
Trusting people who send ID documents
Clicking on offers that look too good to be true

If someone sends you a message asking for money online, what should you do?

Send the money quickly
Ask your friends what to do
Think carefully and check if it's real
Ignore it and delete all your messages